PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

OPEN ARMS MISSION DISTRIBUTES 9,000 POUNDS OF FREE FOOD

Welland, ON – Today, from 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m., Open Arms Mission is hosting a free food giveaway as a result of generous donors and a local restaurant. Swiss Chalet on Niagara Street has donated 100 fresh chickens, which will be distributed to the first 100 people. Other items at the giveaway include white and chocolate milk, eggs, produce, and bread.

Mayor Frank Champion and City Councillors will be assisting with the free food giveaway and distributing non-surgical masks. People receiving food will also receive a package of face masks at the event. The masks were donated by MedSup Canada to Niagara’s municipalities and are being distributed through local agencies.

People will be asked to wear face coverings and to follow physical distancing rules at the event. Open Arms Mission is located at 22 Fifth Street, Welland. For more information, visit www.openarmsmissionwelland.com.
