WELLAND ANNOUNCES CORPORATE LEADERSHIP REORGANIZATION

Welland, ON – Welland City Council approved the reorganization of its Corporate Leadership Team at its meeting last night. The objective of the reorganization is to ensure a strong liaison between Council and the Corporate Leadership Team is maintained to advance the City’s strategic priorities.

The changes are effective immediately and the details are as follows:

- Sherri-Marie Millar has been appointed Director of Infrastructure Services
- Grant Munday has been appointed Director of Planning and Development Services
- Lina DeChellis has been appointed Manager of Economic Development
- Rachelle Larocque has been appointed Manager of Planning Services

“The Corporate Leadership Team plays an integral role in the management and oversight of the corporation,” said Interim CAO, Steve Zorbas. “I am confident in the talents that each team member brings to their role and look forward to working collaboratively with them to support the City’s goals and objectives.”
