

City welcomes Steve Fairweather as interim director of finance

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 1, 2021

Welland, ON – The City of Welland is pleased to announce Steve Fairweather as its new interim director of finance.

With over 30 years of municipal financial management experience in progressively responsible positions, Fairweather specializes in strategic, political, and administrative leadership. With a strong focus on financial planning and management, system policies, and relationship building, Fairweather brings extensive experience to the role.

“We are very pleased to bring in someone with the experience and achievement of Mr. Fairweather,” said Steve Zorbas, CAO. “This position is critical to guiding the corporation to a successful and sustainable financial future.”

Fairweather’s municipal experience spans decades, including 20 years at the City of Cambridge, where he served as the Deputy City Manager/CFO/City Treasurer the last seven.

As the director of finance, he is responsible for the statutory duties set out in the Municipal Act, building internal and external networks, and providing senior advisory functions to Council, CAO, departments, boards and commissions, and employees as required.

Fairweather’s employment begins Oct. 4.
