

Champions WELLAND LEADING THE WAY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Press Release: Friday, February 11, 2011

Champion Recognition at Seaway Mall, Welland, ON

The City of Welland is pleased to present recognition banners to Seaway Mall, Chorus Niagara, and Alphabet Photography for their exceptional and ongoing initiatives to champion Welland Leading the Way.

"Numerous civic champions have been part of our history and will continue to shape our future. City Council has looked forward to this presentation to showcase these deserving recipients for their unique community impact during Christmas 2010", says Mayor Barry Sharpe.

Seaway Mall has a history of being the focal point for community initiatives and business awareness. Seaway Mall also supports educational, arts, recreational, and cultural outreach. Michael Belcastro, President of Seaway Mall, will receive the award.

"Being part of an active community is what drives business, activities, and programs at Seaway Mall. We are proud to accept this award on behalf of the businesses and patrons we serve. Everyday champions, working together, strengthen Welland Leading the Way", states Seaway Mall President, Michael Belcastro.

Chorus Niagara will be presented a banner and recognized for their shining example of Leading the Way in performance excellence and their role in Arts & Heritage. The choir has continued to support community initiatives while keeping in tune with current trends and their application. We applaud their performance. Bravo!

Alphabet Photography We recognize their forward thinking, progressive approach, and Leading the Way by setting the pace for others. We salute your Leading the Way in global awareness.

"It takes all of us to present Welland as a community that Leads the Way to Prosperity, Relationships, Innovation, and Results. We have a lot to be proud of and look forward to recognizing the Champions of Welland ongoing", says City Manager, Craig Stirtzinger.

To nominate someone, a business, or an organization that has Lead the Way, please visit www.welland.ca to complete the form and explain how they have been a Champion in the growth and development of Welland.

For more information contact:

Christine Mintoff

City Clerk / Communications

905-735-1700 Ext. 2280

clerk@welland.ca