For Immediate Release – Wednesday, October 28, 2009 – 12:30 p.m.

Welland – The City of Welland is celebrating the end of a fruitful 2009 Harvest with Halloween at the Welland Farmers' Market.

On Saturday, October 31 between 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. children can purchase a pumpkin, or bring a pumpkin to Market Square to decorate. Decorations will be provided along with some treats.

“Having fun activities for the children to enjoy makes coming to the Market even more enjoyable for them,” said Bernice Booth, Market Square Coordinator. “I hope to see lots of costumes at the Market this Saturday,” Booth said. “Hopefully parents will join in and dress up also.”

For those children dressed in costumes, there is a Best Costume Award given to age categories 0-5 years and 6-10 years. The Costume contest is held in the Market Square Atrium at 10 a.m.
