Major Photo Exhibit Launches 150th Cultural Events

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Friday, January 11, 2008

Welland – “MasterWorks,” a photographic exhibit by two generations of Welland’s legendary photographers , Nikolai and Thies Bogner, will be on display at the Welland Historical Museum from January 29 to April 12, 2008. A gala opening will be held Saturday, January 26, 2008 from 1-4 p.m.

“The Welland Historical Museum is proud to host this unique and very special photo exhibit of Welland’s people and cultural history by two of Canada’s Master Photographers,” stated John Robertson, Chief Curator. “We invite all residents of Welland to view this display that celebrates Welland’s rich cultural history.”

Deanna Villella, Co-Chair of the 150th Anniversary Planning Committee remarked “The committee is pleased to support this exhibit as part of our anniversary line-up. Thies Bogner has been an integral member of our committee and his work superbly reflects the wonderful people and places of Welland.”

The Welland Historical Museum is open Tuesday – Saturday, 10:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. and is located at 140 King Street.
